OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER OF WAXY PAW DESIGN

Latest News

Hello and welcome to the first installment of the Waxy Paw Newsletter.

The team consists of Jake Edwards the designer and Jack Jefree on promo duties. The next few weeks will be an exciting time for the crew with Waxy Paw slowly building a reputation and always looking for work. We will also be opening the new download section which is where you can download the newsletter as well as wallpapers which are coming soon. For more information please visit the site. If you would like any design work completed contact us and we will get back to you ASAP. There has been a lack of liveries the last few week while I get the site up and running but that will return back to the normal out put as we settle in to our new home.

Thats all from me for now, Peace!
